

21 July 2009 – Press release

Two new GEOS Country Risk Tracking services

GEOS is launching 2 new information tools. The Country Risk Tracking Centre now delivers sharp, real-time pushed alerts and a daily summary (Geos Daily Brief) on security-related and political events.

The GEOS Country Risk Tracking Centre

With the Country Risk Tracking Centre, the support of personnel in the field and a global network of experts, GEOS monitors and analyses the political, social, and security environments of more than 180 countries worldwide.

Our pushed alerts, executive summaries and in-depth reports deliver targeted analysis to clients operating abroad, enabling them to anticipate risks that face expatriate personnel and that could affect business continuity.

A range of international risk intelligence and analysis solutions.

- Real-time:

- The new GEOS Travel Security pushed alerts cover current events with contextualisation and analysis from our experts, delivering real-time information on security-related and political events that could directly impact operations abroad.
- A web site: GEOS Travel Security, provides permanent access to a data base of information and recommendations that are updated 24/7 and cover a wide range of themes (safety/security, health, transport and communications, exit and entry formalities, etc.) to enable business travellers and expatriates best organise their trip.
- GEOS Hotline: the GEOS helpline is an essential tool for expatriates and business travellers, providing permanent liaison between staff on assignment abroad and our team of crisis management experts. This solution secures peace of mind for your personnel by delivering 24/7 access to a service manned by highly qualified, responsive managers.

- Daily analysis:

- The new GEOS Daily Brief presents, at the end of each day, a roundup of international risk-related events, presented by geographic region and risk rating.

- Bespoke services:

In-depth reports and executive summaries (security situation by country/region).

About GEOS

GEOS is an international group, and the leading risk management and prevention provider in continental Europe.

The Group delivers operational support to clients operating in hostile business environments, with a comprehensive package of solutions ranging from audit, consultancy, assistance to crisis management. GEOS enables its clients to take advantage of business opportunities and to better assess and control both international (political, security, terrorist), and business risk (competition, white collar crime, fraud, counterfeiting).

GEOS in 2010:

480 full-time staff, a turnover of more than 41 million euro in 2009, operations in more than 80 countries, 18 international branches (Algeria, Colombia, Nigeria, Brazil, Mexico, Iraq, Argentina, etc.) and many clients from all sectors of activity.